Journey

Lord,
 You do not call us to a destination but a journey:-
 A continuing exploration of the wonder of your love, save us from ever thinking that we have arrived, from imagining that we know all there is to know or that we have exhausted the riches of everything that you would reveal to us.
 Teach us that, however much we may understand, there is always more to see, more to learn, and more to understand.
 Open our eyes to the great adventure of faith and to the unfathomable mysteries of your purpose, and so help us to live as pilgrim people, travelling on to new horizons, until we see and know you face to face in the light of your kingdom, and you are all in all. Amen.

Nick Fawcett
