WEEKLY REFLECTION

There’s a coward in all of us, there’s a hero in all of us. ‘Tis a strange truth but this contradiction lives in the heart of every human being – even those we admire and follow. There is a story about the two wolves who are forever fighting in all our souls – the wolf of menace and evil; the wolf of harmony and energy. And who wins? The one you feed! The one you befriend each day. When things are not looking too good, risk opening your heart to befriend the well of courage, The prize is priceless. You find the heroine within, the leader you were born to become. All you seek is already within you. You are made in the image of your Creator. Your truest self is a small flame waiting to burn with immense power and influence

Out of the night that covers me, Black as the pit from pole to pole
I thank whatever gods may be, For my unconquerable soul. “Invictus” WH Henley

When you believe in your immense potential then everything is possible. That is the purpose of your life, the reason you were born. The quaking is over, begin to see yourself in a new light. The darkness will be heavy, the struggle will be a daily one. And the dawn is very near.

Its up to you , you have the choice, To stay asleep or throw the dice,
To play it safe and then to die, Or trust your heart and - fly!

Daniel O’Leary

End of Life Bill- Call for evidence	Following November’s vote to progress Kim Leadbeater’s Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill, a committee of MPs is now ready to start taking evidence on the Bill. Despite the vote having taken place around six weeks ago, the committee has only very recently issued its call for evidence, which is deeply troubling for an issue of such magnitude as doctor-assisted suicide. It is vital that responses are submitted as soon as possible; to give them the best possible chance of being read and considered by the committee and to make sure they are received before any deadline which the committee might hereafter impose. Please do seriously consider making a submission in the coming days. The website provides all the details you need, including a helpful briefing and a link to the committee’s call for evidence webpage.
