CLERGY CHANGES: Fr Jim Hayes will be leaving Kilmarnock after Masses on Sunday 23rd November to take up an appointment as Parish Priest of St Winin's, Kilwinning. At the same time, Fr Stephen and Fr Kevin will become the Parish Priest and Assistant Priest to all three Kilmarnock parishes. The Sunday Mass times in the three parishes will remain the same. Over the coming months, it will be important to reflect as a Deanery on our pastoral vision for the future as the priestly resource is shared among an increasing number of communities. Please pray for all of the priests involved in these changes at this time.

WELCOME TO FR EDDIE McGHEE: Fr Eddie will celebrate the 6 pm Vigil Mass on Saturday 8th November while Fr Kevin is on leave and Fr Stephen is attending a Seminary Applicants Meeting.

NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS:

During November, the weekend and weekday Masses will be offered in the parishes for departed priests, friends and family. (For this reason particular Mass intentions requested will be carried forward to December.) Please take a November List from the back of the church and add the names of those you would like to pray for, and place it in the basket beside the altar. If you are able you may make a Mass offering with your November list. The names of your loved ones whom you wish to be remembered this month will be inserted within the album at the altar.

LAUNCH OF THE OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS AND EVANGELISATION

The Bishops' Conference of Scotland has established a new Office of Communications and Evangelisation to support our common efforts in proclaiming the Gospel and witnessing to the life of the Church in our nation.

The Office will work to:

- Manage and distribute statements for the Bishops' Conference
- Share the Good News of the Gospel confidently and clearly
- Highlight the positive impact of Catholic life across Scotland
- Strengthen communication and collaboration across dioceses, parishes, schools, religious communities and lay apostolates
- Engage constructively with secular media and public discourse
- Support and develop digital evangelisation initiatives at a national level

As part of this mission, Being Catholic TV will now serve as the official digital platform of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland. It will provide video content, livestreamed events, features from around the country, and faith formation resources to assist our parish communities in their work of evangelisation and outreach. To access these resources, visit beingcatholic.org or sign-up to the BCTV social channels.

The Bishops have appointed Fr Michael Kane as Director of this new Office. He will be supported by a small team of staff who will coordinate national communications, distribute official statements, and assist with the wider evangelising mission of the Church.

Commenting on the establishment of the Office, Bishop John Keenan, President of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland, said: "We're thrilled at the launch of this new office and we hope everyone across the Church will be involved in its work. It's good for us to be positive about our message, and to pass-on and share our Good News to others. There is so much happening across Scotland to build up the family of faith, and this office will help us tell that story."

Bishop Frank Dougan, with episcopal responsibility for Communications, added: "We are launching this new initiative because evangelisation is at the heart of the Church's mission. We are called to be missionaries, using every means available to reach everyone we can — including the opportunities offered by digital media."

How Clergy Can Support This Work

We ask that you:

- Let people know about this new office via your website or social channels
- Help populate our digital output by sharing your parish good news stories with the new office by sending in your contributions to media@bcos.org.uk
- Consider how digital media can further your local evangelisation efforts
- Encourage parishioners to engage with Being Catholic TV and the resources it provides
- Make use of materials and announcements circulated by the Office when appropriate

We commend this new initiative to your prayers, and we ask the intercession of Our Lady, Star of Evangelisation, that our work may bear fruit in drawing hearts to Christ.

GALLOWAY YOUTH NEWSLETTER NOVEMBER 2025

GALLOWAY YOUTH COMES TO THE ST MATTHEW'S ACADEMY CLUSTER!: On Sunday 26th October young people from across the St Matthew's Academy cluster (North Ayrshire) gathered for the launch of our monthly Youth Evenings in North Ayrshire in St Peter-in-Chains, Ardrossan. The launch event saw 16 young people gather from across the cluster in spite of the poor weather. The group were supported by five new adult leaders from across North Ayrshire, and led by our new Junior Leaders from St Matthew's Academy. During the course of the evening, the young people enjoyed exploring the question of Mary and her significance in their lives, as well as taking part in a wide range of different games and activities – some of our favourites, and a few new ones introduced by our new Junior Leaders. The next Youth Evenings take place on Sunday 16th November in all four clusters.

ADULT LEADERS

WE NEED YOU...CAN YOU HELP?

We've had a great response from young people in your area, but we need more leaders to help keep our events running.

What's involved?
You would be assisting with safeguarding, supervision, and cooking pizza.

What won't you need to do?
You won't be asked to prepare or lead evenings, all of this is done by our S3 Junior Leaders in collaboration with the Youth Office.

All that we ask is two hours of your time each month to help keep these evenings running.

THE SAINTS: WHO ARE THEY AND WHAT CAN WE LEARN FROM THEM?: The next monthly Youth Evenings take place in all four clusters on Sunday 16th November. This month, young people will explore the theme of The Saints and their importance in our lives. Young people are invited to come dressed as their favourite saint, with a prize available for the best costume (please note, only costumes themed around the Saints are permitted). We'll have our usual selection of games and activities led by our Junior Leaders centred around the theme of the Saints. The evening begins with Mass at 5.00 pm before continuing in the hall at 5.30 pm in all four clusters. Haven't been to a Youth Evening before? Fill in a Consent Form online, go to: youth.rcdg.org.uk. There is no charge to take part in the Youth Evenings.

ADVENT YOUTH RETREAT: Please note that the Advent Youth Retreat, taking place from 28th -30th November is now fully booked. We look forward to welcoming the 32 young people who have registered to take part along – don't worry if you haven't managed to register for this year, we'll be repeating the retreat at a similar time next year. Keep an eye out in Lent for dates and early-bird registration.

GENERATION HOPE: Generation Hope is now in its fourth year. Founded with a vision of helping young people in S1-S3 encounter Christ through time spent with friends in different outdoor activities, times of faith witness, prayer, Mass, and reflections. The week long summer camps have grown and gone from strength to strength – and now you can take part too if you are a Catholic and attend a non-Catholic secondary school. If you would be interested in attending camp alongside young people from all four Diocesan Catholic Secondary schools register your interest on our website: youth.rcdg.org.uk by Sunday 30th November. Subject to sufficient interest being received, we hope to work with the Education Authorities to seek permission to bring you to camp next year as part of the Galloway Youth group.

CHRISTMAS YOUTH DAY – SAVE THE DATE: Our Christmas Youth Day for P6-S4 takes place on Saturday 10th January from 11.00 am – 4.00 pm in St Joseph's, Kilmarnock. Join us for a fantastic day of games, activities, talks and food as we gather to celebrate Christmas as Galloway Youth. Registration opens in late November.

ADULT LEADERS – WE NEED YOU: Our Youth Evenings have grown significantly in recent months in all four clusters, with 63 young people taking part in October, supported by 13 adult leaders with almost 30 now involved across the Diocese. To continue to support the running and growth of these groups particularly in St Andrew's Deanery (Dumfries and Galloway) we need more adult leaders. What does an adult leader do? Our adult leaders are responsible for supervision, safeguarding, and cooking the pizza. You don't have to prepare anything in advance, and you don't have to run anything on the night – all of this is done by our S3 Junior Leaders supported by the Youth Office team. No experience is necessary, and full Safeguarding Training will be provided. All that we need you to do is to attend to supervise and to cook. Evenings normally take place from 5.00-7.00 pm on the third Sunday of each month. Could you help? Email youth@rcdg.org.uk for details and to register.
